R. F. PATTERSON.

R. F. PATTERSON.

By Mr. Lee:

The District Engineer and Attorney having reported that the tracks of the Memphis City Railway Company on Poplar street, from Main street to Manassas street; on Mill, between Third and Kerr streets, on Fifth street; on Vance street, from Main east to Wellington; on Beale, from Desoto to Lauderdale street, and on Lauderdale, from Beale to Mississippi avenue, are not constructed nor maintained in accordance with the charter and contract obligations of said company, and that the said tracks are laid with such rails and in such manner as to be an unlawful obstruction of the public highways and a public nuisance, it is therefore

Resolved, That the attorney of the District be instructed at once to institute such proceedings for the abatement and removal of said tracks as he may deem proper.

The long promised injunction of the hucksters was filed in Chancery vesterday. It was issued by Judge Eldridge, William Odneal becoming bondsman. The complainants are G. R. Anderson, L. L. Herman, S. S. Carter, William Grant, Edward Mitchem, Zach Boyd, A. Green, Duncan Banks, D.O. Banks, John White, G. Ballemany, J. H. Carter, A. Nesbit, Alex Thornton, Davie Campedonico, D. Wolfs, E. K. Daniels, K. F. Boyd, William Mescham, A. D. Cartman, Henry Shepherd and D. Savaria. Complainants show that they are engaged in a business recognized by the laws of the State, and are annually required to pay a license just as other merchants do. They pay a license to the State and county as well as to the Taxing District, on the vehicles used by them in their business. They sell vegetables, fruit, eggs and poultry to householders Resolved, That the attorney of the District be also instructed to take such legal proceedings as he may think proper for the forfeiture of the charter of said company for misuse and abuse of its corporate privileges, and the said attorney is authorised to request the signature and convertion The commodities they sell are for the use of the table, and most of them are of such a nature that they become stale if not delivered when fresh. Many of the articles sold by them are vegetables and are used by families either at breakfast or dinner, and are rarely ever used at supper. The result is that in order to accommodate their customers it is necessary that deliveries should be made from 4 o'clock until 10 o'clock in the morning. It is between these hours each day that they transact their business, except on Saturdays, when they sell in the evening only to supply their customers for Sunday. Their customers to request the signature and co-operation of the proper officer of the State, and to use the name of the District and of the individual members of this Council in such feiture proceedings.

Adopted.

By Mr. Patterson:

Resolved, That the proposition of the District looking to the grant of the right of way to the Memphis City Railway Company from Main street, through Jefferson street, to the Memphis and Charleston railroad depot having been refused, such propositions are withdrawn.

General Response to the resolution of your honorable body, asking me to report upon specific violations of the cherter by the Memphis City Railway, I can but refer to the condition of their tracks on Poplar street, between Main and Manassas streets, and the line in Chelsea, between Third street, on Mill and Kerr streets, on Fifth street and on Vance streets, from Main to Wellington. The seventh section of the charter, as reported by the attorney, requires the company to construct their lines on the most approved plan for street railroads. When this ordinance was adopted the old city government derived a large revenue from the old market houses, and hucksters were not then licensed to sell marketing as they are now. This ordinance, as they are advised, has been considered as unreasonable and inoperative for years, and no attempt has been made to enforce it. The Taxing District has undertaken to enforce this unreasonable ordinance, not withstanding the fact that complainants The rail fastenings and subsection of track upon the streets named are of the most ordinary and indifferent character and very far from the present first-class standard street railroad tracks, as required by their charter, if that instrument contemplated and demanded what is now known as smooth, even, steady and firm riding tracks, well paved and in true surface and line.

Mrs. Dr. Sawyers and family have re

To the Editors of the Appasi:

I wish to make a statement through your valuable paper. I have been a citizen of North Mississippi, adjacent to Memphis, for forty years, including my boyhood. Memphis has been my market for all my products. I have been permitted to sell when and where I could find a buyer. For the past six months I have been a citizen of your State (Tennessee), and up to this time have been permitted to market my milk, butter and such vegetables as I and family could make by hard and honest toil, by which we have made an honest living. Now, Mr. Editor, I see in the Appasa of the 13th of September an edict from Judge Hadden that prohibits me from pursuing my hard, but honest avocation, that is, that I can not sell the vegetables I make to the good people of Memphis, who are ever ready and willing to buy. Now, if this prohibition is the law, and this law in accord with the constitution of the United States, which gives every man liberty and protection, I must acquiesce, as I have ever been a peaceful and law-abiding citizen. If it is not, we are no more free, but slaves—our liberty taken from us regardless of the constitutional guarantee.
